- WHEREAS~ February 20, 1988 marked the beginning of the national liberation movement in Nagorno Karabakh, which inspired peoples throughout the Soviet Union to stand up against tyranny and for their rights and freedoms, helping to bring democracy to millions and contributing to world peace; and

- WHEREAS~ On December 10, 1991 the people of Nagorno Karabakh voted in favor of the independence of the region, and on January 6, 1992 the democratically elected legislature of the Nagorno Karabakh Republic formally declared independence; and
- WHEREAS~ Azerbaijan responded to the Nagorno Karabakh Republic's aspiration for freedom with pogroms in Sumgait, Baku and other places, eventually unleashing full-scale aggression against the young democracy; and
- WHEREAS~ Despite the cease-fire with Azerbaijan in 1994, the Nagorno Karabakh Republic's security and sovereignty continue to be threatened by regional tension and hostile acts; and
